1. Contributions payable - Includes all contributions payable for the tax year 01 March 2024 to 28 February 2025.
2. Contribution adjustments - Includes all changes to contributions made as a result of membership changes between 01 March 2024 to 28 February 2025, relating to the relevant contribution months prior to the tax period.
3. Total contributions payable - The total of column 1 (Contributions payable) and column 2 (Contribution adjustments).
4. Total contributions received - Includes amounts received from 01 March 2024 to 28 February 2025 irrespective of which contribution month it was allocated to. This includes contributions paid by the member and the member's employer/pension fund, if applicable. Please refer to the member's IRP5 certificate for a breakdown of the employer and employee/pension fund contributions.

CLAIMS:

Claims not covered by the Scheme: R 2 080.32

Please note: This tax schedule includes claims processed by the Scheme and DENIS up to 28 February 2025. Claims paid from a Medical Savings account have been excluded from this tax schedule.

SAVINGS:

Refund of Medical Savings Account: R 0.00

Interest received on Medical Savings Account: R 0.00

Please note: The amount reflected as a refund of your Medical Savings Account on this tax schedule represents the Medical Savings Account Balance which was refunded to you during this tax year. This amount would only have been refunded to you if your membership was terminated or the option that you selected during this tax year did not have a Medical Savings Account. This amount does not include amounts transferred to another medical scheme.

The amount reflected as Interest received on your Medical Savings Account, is calculated on the actual Medical Savings paid by the Member as part of his/her contributions and not yet utilised, and not on any advanced savings balances.

BENEFICIARY DETAILS:

Beneficiary details - In terms of the tax legislation relating to medical expenses, KeyHealth Medical Scheme should provide details of each beneficiary in respect of personal details, relationship to the principal member, number of months of membership during this tax year and a breakdown of claim amounts not paid by the Scheme.

Disability indicator - Beneficiaries with a disability are indicated in the Disability indicator column. In terms of Section 18 of the Income Tax Act, SARS allows for the deduction of certain expenditures incurred and paid by the taxpayer as a result of the disability, subject to certain limitations. It is the responsibility of the member to submit proof to SARS that the claims not covered by the Scheme or portions thereof for the disabled beneficiaries, are deductible.

Please consult the SARS Income Tax Information Brochure or your tax consultant to determine which portion of the amounts displayed on this tax certificate may be claimed as a deduction.

A copy of your tax certificate can also be accessed through your online profile at www.keyhealthmedical.co.za

DISCLAIMER: As the claims on this tax certificate were not paid by the Scheme, it is the responsibility of the member to submit proof to SARS that these accounts were settled by the member. Further, this certificate reflects the status of the medical claims as at 28/02/2025 and does not include any claims rejected that may be recovered after this date. Any negative values, due to short payments or claims adjustments, have been defaulted to R 0.01 according to SARS requirements.

Should you require any further information, please contact the Client Service Centre on 0860 671 050 or send an e-mail to info@keyhealthmedical.co.za. The Client Service Centre is operational Monday to Friday between 07:30 and 18:00, excluding public holidays.

Kind regards
