Taxation

Interest is fully taxable and you will be responsible for any tax disclosures to SARS. The annual tax certificate we provide, serves to report the amount of interest actually paid and/or accrued to you, and is not an expression by Absa of the tax implications of the interest paid or accrued. We advise our clients to seek independent tax advice where there is uncertainty regarding the tax treatment of investments.

Note:

- * Interest accrued refers to the interest amount that has been earned (i.e. unconditionally entitled) but not paid as at 28 February.
-  Interest capitalised refers to the interest that has been earned from 1 March to 28 February that has been paid minus any accrued interest in the previous tax year.
